Seabob serial number: S. ☐☐ . ☐☐☐☐☐☐☐☐

Seabob pin code: ___ ___ ___ ___

Seabob WiFi password: ___ ___ ___ ___ ___ ___ ___ ___
*only for models with cameras

OCEAN PREMIUM

QUESTIONS, ANSWERS & TROUBLESHOOTING:

- How often should I charge my Seabob?
  Charge your Seabob at least once per month.

- When do I use the transport mode?
  When transporting by air or storing the Seabob for over one month.

- How do I set the depth limit?
  Enter the Seabob menu with your pin code and set desired depth.

- Can I leave the charger connected all the time?
  Yes. You still need to regulary check if the Seabob is taking charge.

- Can the Seabob battery be overcharged?
  No.

- Accumulator overheating:
  Disconnect the charger, place the Seabob in a cooler environment to stabilise.

- Accumulator error:
  Put your Seabob in a cooler environment and put it on charge for 24 hours.

- Trigger is stuck or unresponsive:
  Rinse it thoroughly while squeezing the trigger.

- Charging socket is wet:
  Clean it with regular water and make sure it is dry before connecting the charger. Make sure protective cap is firmly tight before you put the Seabob back into water.

USEFUL SHORTCUTS:

- Switch on:
  blue - trigger

- Switch off:
  silver - blue - trigger

- Menu access:
  silver - blue - red

- Switch on storage mode:
  Connect the charger and press the green button

- Switch off storage mode:
  Connect the charger and press the red button

- Check usage time:
  While the Seabob is on, press the blue button

MAINTENANCE SCHEDULE:

	January	February	March	April	May	June	July	August	September	October	November	December
Seabob charge
Maintenance service
Service & errors												